Women Of The Nation, Pray!

We must continue to stand and pray like never before. I have never in all my life seen such an onslaught of demonic activity, attacks, strife, confusion, chaos, and rage being unleashed on our land, God's people, and God's families in America.

Psalm 95 is a righteous defense for us and we link arms and raise our voices and will not be silenced by the enemy at this point. Let's pray together.

Father, oh Righteous Judge, Your word plainly instructs us in Psalm 95 to praise You in the midst of all adversity. You also warn against unbelief so we stand confessing that we believe You. We will not be in unbelief but against all odds, and circumstances WE BELIEVE YOU! Your word states and we confess today that America will come and we will sing joyfully to the Lord; we will shout joyfully to the rock of our salvation.

We will come before Your presence with a song of thanksgiving; America will shout joyfully to You with songs! For You, Lord, are a great God and a great King above all gods, in whose hand are the depths of the earth; and the peaks of the mountains are Yours also. The sea is Yours, for You made it by Your command; and Your hands formed the dry land.

America will come and worship and bow down as a nation; we will kneel before You, our Maker, in reverent praise and prayer. For You are our God and we are the people of Your pasture and the sheep of Your hand. Today, if America will hear Your voice, and not harden our hearts and become spiritually dull as at Meribah, the place of strife, and as at Massah, the place of testing in the wilderness, when our fathers tested You, Lord, they tried You, even though they had seen Your work of miracles.

Forgive us, Lord, as a nation and as a people for not believing when You have done miracle after miracle for us as a nation. Forgive our unbelief, and our selfish ways, and our selfish worship of ourselves instead of You, oh mighty God! For forty years You were grieved and disgusted with that generation, and You said, 'They are a people who err in their heart, and they do not acknowledge or regard My ways.' Therefore You swore an oath in Your wrath, 'They absolutely shall not enter My rest, the land of promise.'

Father, please do not hold this thankless, unbelieving generation as a standard representing all of us in America. Father, there is still a remnant who loves You, and worships You, and has kept our eyes on You. We need You to bring deliverance in our land, Lord. Free us from the hand of the adversary, and defend us with Your righteous cause in the mighty name of Jesus, our Defense. Amen.

Thank you for not giving up or giving in to the threats of the enemy, or the words of the accuser. We go before our Righteous Judge and ask Him to strike from the heavenly record any words used against us that have come from our own mouths.

Please keep praying. Jesus is coming and we must continue to prepare the bride of Christ. Keep searching His word and continually go into the court of heaven to plead for America. This is no time to align our words with the world's way of talking! God's word is our defense and we must use that sword in our mouths!

We remain faithful to His righteous cause,
